

JavaScript Connectors

The OIDC Provider from BankID provides JavaScript Connectors for each of the supported Identity Providers. A connector is a front-end wrapper for the REST API that simplifies integration and ensures that the REST API is used in the intended way. The supported Connectors have strong similarities but are also different according to the individual characteristics of each IDP.

✔ = Supported. ⚠ = In progress / future support

JS Connector	Support	Description
BankID Connector	⚠	Future support
xID Connector	✔	Supported